

Kefauver Wins Over Stevenson in Minnesota

BY JACK HAGRTY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — (UP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver jubilantly claimed today the Democratic tide had turned in his favor on the strength of a stunning upset victory over Adlai Stevenson in Minnesota's presidential primary.

He won decisively in six of nine Minnesota congressional districts, while Stevenson had clinched victory in only one on the basis of late returns. Two districts in which Stevenson led remained in doubt, with a possibility the outcome would not be known until tomorrow or until the official canvass.

Snowbound roads delayed the count in some northwestern Minnesota counties and returns traditionally come in by canoe from some precincts in the roadless wilderness area of the northeast.

A flood of votes upset Stevenson in a state where analysts said he had to score a decisive victory to remain the front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Stevenson backers, including almost all the top Democratic-Farmer-Labor leaders in Minnesota, said they would go over yesterday's primary returns precinct by precinct to check whether Republicans had crossed party lines to vote for Kefauver.

Council Goes Over Audit of City, Plant

Hope City Council received the city Water and Light plant audit report last night and discovered the city is in much better financial condition than at the same time a year ago.

Robert Jewell, Lile and Co. auditor, went over the audit with the group and made various recommendations: 1. a full time warehouse man; 2. budgets for all departments; 3. establishment of a cushion fund for the Water and Light plant for emergencies such as drilling a water well, purchase of extra equipment etc. 4. general liability insurance for the Water and Light Plant building and 5. a revision of the meter deposits, probably only new customers, raising the deposit for more protection.

The audit revealed that the Hope Water and Light plant profit was $164,000 for 1955 as compared to $153,000 the previous year. And it was noted that the city took, $82,739.90 of this profit which represented a decrease over the previous year of $7,500. It was also revealed that the city retired $21,000 in bonds ahead of schedule last year.

In other action the council voted to purchase a lot in the Andrews area from Luther J. Thompson for the sum of $300. This lot will be used to dig the new city water well. A site near Gunter Lumber Co., was abandoned due to the fact that there are several existing wells in the same sand in the area.

The Council voted to purchase a steam cleaner from the city garage at a price of $641; and went in partnership with the County on the purchase of finger printing equipment owned by the late Dr. Linker. This equipment will be used jointly by county and city officers. The equipment cost $150 with the city paying half; the group also voted to purchase 24 chairs for the fire department to be used at meetings twice monthly.

A resolution was passed approving work so far on Improvement Dist. 2, a sewage district in the Yorgor school area which represents a bonding issue of $23,000, the amount to be paid by property owners of the area.

The Council also heard a plan to install a new system in the W&L Plant bookkeeping and billing department but took no action.

Would Reject New Election Plan

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-N.J.) appealed to his GOP colleagues today to reject a proposed constitutional amendment that would revise the system of electing presidents and vice presidents.

Although 30 Republican senators are listed as sponsors of the proposed amendment, Case contended its "adverse effect on the Republican party for the indefinite future cannot be questioned."

He also maintained in a memorandum sent to his fellow Republican senators that the proposal would cause what he termed "great and permanent injury to our society and our form of government and to the American two-party system."

Philosopher Has Two Jobs for Self

BY LYLE C. WILSON

SEATTLE (AP)—Will Durant, the 70-year-old philosopher-historian, has laid out two jobs for himself.

One, he said in an interview, is to finish his seven-volume "Story of Civilization," the sixth volume of which will reach the publishers soon.

"And then," he was asked, "What do you plan on doing?" His unsmiling answer "I plan to die"

$2½ Million in Road Work to Be Contracted

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bids on 14 road and bridge construction projects costing a total of 2½ million dollars were asked yesterday by the Arkansas Highway Commission.

Included in the jobs was the first paving work on the proposed 4-lane highway for the U. S. 67-70 route between Little Rock and Benton. The roadbed for the two new lanes already has been prepared. The first strip to be paved would be only 0.681 miles long, but it would include an overpass.

Bids on the jobs will be opened April 14. The other projects, by counties, included:

St. Francis—2,550 miles of grading, minor drainage structures, gravel base, one reinforced concrete and steel bridge on Highway 38 between Widener and Hughes.

Jefferson—4,500 miles of grading, minor drainage structures, widening and resurfacing with asphaltic concrete hot mix on U.S. Highway 75 to the intersection of 65 and Ohio Street in Pine Bluff.

Arkansas—12,715 miles of gravel base and single bituminous surface treatment on Highway 4, between junction of highways 35 and 4 east of Monticello to the junction of Highways 4 and 138.

White—0,416 miles of grading, gravel base and one reinforced concrete and structural steel bridge on Highway 124 between Pangburn and Sunnydale.

Green—7,938 miles of gravel base and single bituminous surface treatment on Highway 34 between junction of Highways 34 and 135 and Beech Grove.

Soviet Leaders Determined to Smear Stalin

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW (Delayed) (UP) —The Soviet Union's peaceful but powerful fourth revolution appeared today to be subsiding into a dogged campaign to erase Stalinism even if it takes 10 years, and it may.

Soviet leaders estimate it will take something like a decade to carry out the intensive educational play to remove the last vestiges of Stalinism from the public consciousness. They are determined to see it through.

This is a purposeful, cautious and skillfully-directed revolt from the top to the bottom and the leaders are content for the campaign to move slowly now.

The revolt is not against Josef Stalin personally but against the phenomenon of Stalinism which is euphemistically called "the cult of personality."

It is understood that the main burden of Nikita Khrushchev's speech to the closed session of the 20th Communism Party Congress here Feb. 28 was a condemnation of tyrannical, one-man absolutism with its attendant evils.

Stalin's misdeeds were cited to illustrate the dangers of one-man rule.

At the same time, Khrushchev, secretary of the Communist party, dwelled at length on Stalin's extraordinary merits as a revolutionary leader before his assumption of the personal dictatorship.

Mrs. Maggie Pickard Dies in Little Rock

Miss Maggie Pickard, aged 83, resident of Hempstead for many years, died Tuesday at Little Rock. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Minnie Collins of Little Rock. Funeral services were to be held at 3 p. m. Wednesday at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. Virgil Keeley, Burial in Shover Springs Cemetery.

'Fort' Chaffee to Be Permanent Installation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army today designed five of its bases including Camp Chaffee, Ark. — as "permanent installations." They'll be known hereafter as "forts" instead of camps.

Involved are Chaffee, Gordon and Stewart in Georgia, Jackson in South Carolina and Leonard Wood in Missouri. All have been maintained on a temporary basis for some years.

Army Secretary Brucker, in announcing the changes, said he was convinced the Army "will be required to maintain strong" forces, including sizable active forces overseas for a very long time to come.

Brucker said also the permanent bases were needed to enable the Army to meet world wide commitments and also to permit "more rapid expansion than ever before in case of general emergency."

The designation of the former camps as forts qualifies them for permanent type housing such as is provided under the Capehart act.

This act permits the Army to authorize and sponsor privately constructed housing around military installations on a long-term basis.

Market Rise of Gas Stock Tied to Rate Hikes

LITTLE ROCK (Special) —An unco-operative Arkansas Public Service Commission could play havoc with the stock-selling program charted in the agreement signed October 17, 1955, by W.R. Stephens Investment Co., Little Rock; Mississippi River Fuel Corp., St. Louis; Union Securities Corp., New York, and Union's president, J. H. King.

Analysis of the contract, which was filed with the federal Securities and Exchange Commission February 3, establishes that the avowed purpose is to provide for orderly and profitable sales of Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Co. stock nominally held by Stephens, Union and King.

They must, under the contract, vote the stock in compliance with Mississippi River Fuel Corp.'s wishes as to dividends in excess of 50 cents a year per share, sales of assets and recapitalization. Since they own 52.3 per cent, this assures control.

Already Mississippi River Fuel has netted $1,000,000 profits from the Ark-La stock transactions which began in the fall of 1954 with acquisition by Stephens of 81 per cent of Ark-La stock from Cities Service Co.

The first million dollars of any profits realized in the future by Stephens, Union and King from sale of the stock also must go to Mississippi River Fuel. They have until December 14, 1959, to sell their stock "principally to others than associates or 'affiliates'" and to remit a total of $1,000,000 — divided proportionately among Stephens, Union and King.

If, by that time, any of the stock remains unsold and Mississippi River Fuel has not received its $1,000,000 of additional profits, an agreement shall be reached, by arbitration if negotiations fail, to determine a fair market price for the unsold stock. From the apparent profit, if any, Mississippi River Fuel shall be paid whatever may still be due it.

Mississippi River Fuel has posted with the First National City Bank of New York a guaranty under which it would, on five days notice pay the balance of Stephens, Union and King loans which are secured by the Ark-La stock, in event of a default. The index-Continued on Page Two

Ike Appeals for Mediation in Middle East

By DONALD J. GONZALES

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower today appealed for mediation of the Middle East crisis to avoid the world tragedy of a war in that tense area.

The President told his news conference that any major outbreak of hostilities in the Middle East would be a tragedy for the whole world.

He said the major U. S. effort at the moment is to find some way to help Middle Eastern countries see their best interest lie in mediation.

Mr. Eisenhower underlined his serious concern over the Middle Eastern crisis and other foreign policy affairs by saying he will meet briefly tonight with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. Dulles will return from a 10-nation Asian tour late this afternoon.

The President said he and Dulles will meet at the White House tomorrow morning with Democratic and Republican congressional leaders. The group will discuss foreign affairs, including Dulles' trip.

Mr. Eisenhower refused at his news conference to comment on whether the administration later might seek congressional authority to act in the Middle East. All his comments emphasized that U. S. policy at the moment is based on that of the United Nations and on American - British - French cooperation in the area.

In his extensive review of the Middle East crisis, the President refused to say what the United States plans to propose in the United Nations. Details of the American plan, he said, will be made public later.

VFW Appeals for Members of Blood Bank

The VFW now has 91 local persons on its walking blood bank list and hopes to secure many more tonight and Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce office where types are being tested.

Many willing folk report to VFW members they already know their type and don't have to be tested again. This may be true but those folks are not registered with the VFW Bank and very few know their RH factors which is absolutely necessary to prevent future mix-ups.

So whether you know your blood type or not go by the C of C office and register with the bank. Its success depends on residents' of Hope and Hempstead. Just remember someone close to you may sometime need the assistance of this bank.

Denies Leaving Caesar TV Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Comedienne Nanette Fabray has termed "not correct" a magazine story saying she is leaving Sid Caesar's television show because of a dispute over money and billing.

The article in TV Guide magazine said Miss Fabray had demanded $10,000 a week and co-star billing with Caesar. She now makes $3,750.

A "clash of egos" was another reason for the breakup, the magazine added.

Miss Fabray commented in a statement yesterday.

"The information as reported in TV Guide concerning my not appearing on Caesar's Hour next season is not correct."

"I never asked for co-star billing and I must say it would be improper and unbusiness-like for me to go into details concerning the items discussed in the article."

"Sid and I have tried to avoid airing our contractual problems."

Pilkinton Cites Industrial Value of Wet Millwood

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (Special) The proposed Millwood Dam located on Little River in Southwest Arkansas, with a storage capacity of 500 million gallons of water, could create 50,000 new factory jobs in this area, Judge James H. Pilkinton of Hope, said Tuesday night at the Columbia County Medical Society's dinner held in Magnolia at the Magnolia Inn.

The site of the dam is only 52 miles northwest of Magnolia, and some 33 miles from Lewisville and Stamps. The Southwest Arkansas Water District has proposed that provisions for industrial, agricultural and municipal water be included in the planning for the dam. The water district intends, to make the water available to all interested cities and industries without cost to the government, if permitted to do so, Judge Pilkinton said. Charles Conway of Texarkana is president of the water district.

Such a water supply would accommodate 20 plants of the size of the International Paper Company's plant at Springhill, Louisiana, which employs about 2500 people and uses about 25 million gallons of water daily, the speaker said.

Or, he added, this supply of water would accommodate 357 plants of the size of the Reynolds Aluminum Plant at Arkadelphia which employs 650 people and uses 1,400,000 gallons of water daily. These 357 new plants would employ 252,000 people, he added.

The Arkansas Economic Council estimates that for every 100 new factory workers 292 people are added to the area, and Judge Pilkinton said 50,000 jobs on that basis would bring 148,000 more people, 58,000 more homes, $295,000,000 more personal income, $135,000,000 more bank deposits, $180,000,000 more retail sales, $7,000 additional Continued on Page Two

Patience and Understanding Again Urged

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower said today that he thinks it is incumbent on the Southern states to make some progress toward racial integration in schools as decreed by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Under news conference questioning, Mr. Eisenhower said that he is well aware of the deep emotions involved in the South, and that he advocates a pattern of moderation and progress.

The chief executive said he does not believe in stagnation on the racial issue in the South. But he added that he wanted to take the occasion of his meeting with reporters to plead again for understanding and patience.

Mr. Eisenhower avoided direct comment on Kefauver's statement that the large vote indicates a "Midwest 'revolt' against the administration's program of flexible farm price supports."

Without referring to our new knowledge of Kefauver's statement, the President said he believed the nation's farmers understand the administration's program. He said the vote is something to be understood. Continued on Page Two

Urges Letters to Lawmakers on Millwood

Dr. Sam Strong made an urgent plea to the 68-member Hope Kiwanis club Tuesday to write "some more letters" to the Arkansas delegation in Washington in opposition to the U. S. Army Engineers' recommendation for a "dry" Millwood dam.

"What we want and the vast majority of common citizens in Southwest Arkansas is not a dry Millwood — but a wet Millwood — something that will do the most people the most good," declared the doctor.

"I know we have a fight on our hands from the Dierks Lumber and Coal Company because they want to preserve their timber holdings with a dry dam."

"What we must do is wake up, bow our necks, and let some people in Washington know that we help elect them, and that we want some representation."

"I strongly urge each one of you to write our congressman and our senators and let them know in no uncertain terms that we want a wet dam for a dry Millwood dam," declared the speaker.

Mayor H. M. Olsen reported that a membership campaign in support of the Southwest Arkansas Water District and a wet Millwood dam is gaining momentum and that several thousand citizens already had become members of the organization — all supporting a wet Millwood.

Guests of the club Tuesday were Coach John Pierce and his Hope High School basketball team.

James and Henry Bessley of the Bessley Music Company of Texarkana presented an organ musical program.

U. S. Planes Help France in Algeria

ALGERIA (UP) — France is mounting a sizeable fleet, supported by U. S. multi-engine planes, to seal the "African Riviera" coast against gunrunners serving Arab guerrillas in Algeria, it was reported today.

The Cruiser Georges Leygues mounting nine six-inch guns, and four destroyers already have arrived in East Algerian ports, and an undetermined number of other warships are on the way.

Naval authorities were waiting today for orders from Algeria Minister Robert Lacoste to assign the fleet to blockade stations. At the same time, it was announced in Paris that an American firm has agreed to help supply the helicopters that have become one of France's top-priority anti-guerrilla weapons.

Don R. Berlin, president of the Verol Aircraft corporations, said his firm has agreed to ship France eight to 10 H21C helicopters a month, beginning in June. A French firm making H21R's under license eventually will swell the flow of "choppers" to Algeria.

The H21C, a craft designed for U. S. military service, can carry 20 soldiers armed for battle or 12 wounded men on stretchers.

Reports from the fighting front said 17 persons were killed and 100 injured in sporadic clashes in Algeria yesterday. Thirty suspected Arab saboteurs and dynamiters were arrested in the big Western part of Oran.

In Paris today, every newspaper except the Communist organ Humanite hailed Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon's declaration of U. S. support for French policy in Algeria as proof of the unity of the Western Big Three.

Humanite snarled "Washington is mixing in North Africa—a bad sign."

Something Like a Blizzard, Now Covering New York, Turns the Big City Into a Village

By RELMAN MORIN
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Mother Nature have waved a magic wand over New York and turned the big city into a village.

As you saw in the papers we have been getting snow here a fantastic amount for this corner of the country. Some of the old timers—sitting around in Manhattan equivalents of the general store—are comparing this storm with the real wing-ding blizzards of the past.

It has choked the streets buried parked automobiles and most wonderful of all made the traffic simply vanish in thin air.

It delights children opens theater doors (because so many people with tickets can't get downtown) makes strangers feel like talking to each other and gives everybody a chance to tell you "how I got to the office." Or vice versa.

It has been magic pure white magic.

You think of New York as the epitome of the machine age in fact as a great roaring machine itself. But when the storm engulfed it the city was as helpless as any cross-roads community. Snow plows and trucks and steam conduits beneath the streets cleared some places. Mostly though it was done with muscle and shovels.

Before they started however people going to work simply walked down the middle of the streets.

It gave you an eerie feeling to see the avenues deserted except for an occasional bus or truck. And walking along the tracks they had made came pedestrians. Imagine walking down the middle of Fifth Avenue at 9 o'clock in the morning—and living!

Together the wind and snow fashioned shapes of incredible beauty.

Great billowing curtains of white came swirling down from the skyscrapers. Sometimes it looked like columns of thick smoke pouring from a rooftop.

Snowy whirlpools like pale ghosts floated slowly down Park Avenue. The kids of course had a field day. Two boys struggling with undersized shovels to clear a patch of sidewalk stopped for breath as I passed. "Well anyway" said one "this is a lot better than going to school."

I also had a brief conversation with an elderly airhead who was taking his master for a walk. Unlike most dogs this old fellow did not like the snow or any part of it. He put this old foot down gingerly took one step and stopped. Then he would take another step and stop. Then he growled and the growl turned to a complaining whine.

What he said about this blizzard was picturesque but unfortunately not printable in a family newspaper.

New Yorkers are usually worse than Englishmen about not talking to strangers. But on the bus everybody was an old friend of everybody else. The blizzard was an experience shared a common bond.

A man said "It sure taught me one thing... never go out in this kind of weather without a full tank of gas." A woman across the aisle asked what had he had to do to abandon his car on a highway beside the Hudson. Everybody clucked and offered sympathy.

A bus driver said "I saw at least a thousand cars left on the West Side Highway." "That would be a tough place to be" said a man. "There's the river on one side and a railroad on another. You suppose they walked all the way in to town?" "Beats me" said the driver.

He saw a man signal from the curb and although it wasn't a scheduled stop he halted the bus at the corner.

The man said as he came aboard "You're a gentleman Sir. Thank you."

"I had to come to work myself" said the driver. "I know how it is."

First State Union Merger Completed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first state merger of the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organization was completed here yesterday, pooling 40,000 workers into the Arkansas State Labor Council.

About 600 delegates to the council's organizational convention shouted approval of a new constitution, a resolution calling for the merger, and in a show of honeymoon harmony, elected all council officers by acclamation.

The CIO-AFL merger was adopted by the national labor organizations last December. Arkansas is the first state to follow suit.

Odell Smith, who was president of the Old Arkansas Federation of Labor, was chosen to head the new joint organization. Smith, a 51-year-old former truck driver, has headed the Little Rock local of the Teamsters Union 20 years.

W. C. (Bill) Demers of Little Rock, an official of the Communications Workers Union, longtime affiliate of the CIO, was named vice president. Wayne Glenn, who had headed the AFL state office here, was elected executive secretary.

Charles M. Catton of Fort Smith, head of the old CIO state office, was chosen treasurer.

At a dinner meeting last night, the delegates heard former Gov. Sid McMath criticized segregationists and conservative elements of the Democratic Party.

ed that while he favors the basic idea of 100 per cent of purity in the market place, efforts to achieve this by law would add to farm surpluses and pile up trouble for the farmer.

Other news conference highlights:

1. The President said the farm bill passed by the Senate would be workable and not a good piece of legislation. He hoped that Senate-House conferees would produce a better measure from the administration viewpoint.

2. He does not believe that basic Communist objectives have been changed by recent Soviet criticism of Stalin. The President said that he thought the current Russian leadership had embarked on other methods and consequently had to repudiate something.

3. He would very much like to visit India, but such a trip would be difficult because if he went to the Far East he would have to visit a number of other areas. Mr. Eisenhower will play host to Indian Prime Minister Nehru here in July.

4. He called a meeting of Republican and Democratic congressional leaders for 8:30 a. m. tomorrow to hear a report from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on his recent trip to the Far East.

5. He praised the Defense Department for putting into effect 325 recommendations of the Hoover commission on government efficiency.

The President's discussion of the segregation issue was produced by a series of news conference questions. He was asked first how he felt about Negroes being brought to trial in Montgomery, Ala., for "refusal to ride the buses."

The President said first that he understood there was an Alabama state law against boycotts, but he felt for the overall problem of segregation he said he wanted to refer back to his news conference statement of last week when he asked for patience and understanding.

The President paused for a moment and then said he had an added idea—he believes it is incumbent on the South to show some progress toward school integration in conformance with the opinion of the Supreme Court.

Election Law Change Talked for 159 Years

By JAME SMARLOW, Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — For 159 years—ever since 1797—Congress has talked about amending the Constitution to change the Electoral College system of choosing a president and vice president. The Senate debating it again is wading in muddy water. Democrats and Republicans are divided among themselves. Neither friends nor foes of the amendment being considered can positively predict its ultimate effect if it became law.

Because delegates to the Constitutional Convention in 1787 didn't trust the wisdom of the average voter in choosing a president and vice president they put this method into the Constitution. Each state would choose distinguished citizens—equal in number to a state's total number of senators and representatives in Congress—to select a president and vice president. These citizens were called electors.

The framers of the Constitution didn't foresee the rise of the big political parties which use the electoral system this way. Each party in each state picks a slate of electors. When a party's candidate wins the popular vote in a state all that party's electors vote for its candidate although under the Constitution they could vote for whom they pleased.

A state's electoral votes all go to the candidate winning a plurality of the popular vote. For example in a state with 45 electoral votes candidate Smith gets 500,000 popular votes and candidate Jones gets 499,000. By that 1,000-vote margin candidate Smith gets all 45 electoral votes while the 499,000 people who voted for Jones count for nothing.

This has long been criticized as a weak spot in the electoral system. Why not a constitutional amendment to let a president and vice president be chosen directly by popular vote?

It is not being seriously considered now. It seems to have little chance. The Constitution can't be amended unless—in addition to two thirds of the Senate and House—36 of the 48 states approve.

The three-part main proposal for amending the Constitution now being considered in the Senate would retain the electoral system but work this way with some of the arguments being offered against it.

No. 1. No candidate would automatically get all of a state's electoral votes. Each candidate would get a portion of a state's electoral votes in proportion to his popular vote.

Argument against Big states whose popular vote might be pretty evenly divided—and thus have their electoral vote divided—would lose the importance and value of their big population. Smaller states particularly those where one party dominates would gain and might control an election.

No. 2. Instead of doing it the proportional way a state legislature could decide to let the voters choose electors the way they pick members of Congress two electors would be chosen for the whole state (as senators are) and the rest would be elected by congressional districts.

Argument against Rural areas have too much influence now—both in state legislatures and the way congressional districts are set—in proportion to their numbers. This would give them even more influence in picking a president.

No. 3. If no party got 50 per cent of the electoral vote the House and Senate jointly would pick the President and vice president.

Argument against. This not only would delay the choice of a president but could turn the presidency into a football in a game of political deals to get a majority vote in Congress.

UN Council to Take Action on Middle East

By WILLIAM N. OATIS, UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council is expected to meet in emergency session late this week or early next in answer to a U. S. call for urgent action on the current Israeli-Arab crisis.

The U. S. delegation called on the 11-nation Security Council for "urgent and early action," the same words President Eisenhower used in his March 7 news conference.

The prospect was raised that U. N. secretary General Dag Hammarskjold might be sent on of Washington, Ark., Rt. 1, announce the arrival of a baby boy March 21, 1956.

Coming and Going

Lt. Donald Bailey of Seward Air Force Base, Tennessee and Miss Jean Collins of Seward, Tennessee were the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bailey over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey and two sons of El Dorado and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Bailey and daughter of Gurdon were also guests in the H. J. Bailey home over the weekend.

a new peace mission to the Israeli area.

U. S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. reported a build-up of armed forces near the Israeli borders by both sides. He said shooting incidents were "recurrent at a dangerous rate."

Border clashes have erupted frequently between Israel and the neighboring Arab states of Egypt, Jordan and Syria.

Lodge said the border clashes and armed buildups were violations of the 1949 armistice negotiated with U. N. help.

"It is a matter of deep concern to the government of the United States," he said, "and it therefore requests urgent and early action by the Security Council to consider the situation now prevailing in the Palestine area."

Diplomatic informants said the United States, France and Britain want the Security Council to send Hammarskjold back to the area. The secretary general returned last month from talks with Arab and Israeli leaders and said they had promised to settle disputes peacefully. But there was no letup to border incidents.

Russia has been shown a Western plan of action designed to strengthen the U. N. role of peacemaker. The West wants Russia to agree so the Security Council decision will be unanimous. Russia has given no hint of its attitude, but twice in 1954 it vetoed U. N. resolutions on Palestine which the Arab nations opposed.

There was no early hint of the new Western plan other than a Hammarskjold mission. Britain had suggested previously that the U. N. truce commission in Palestine, a small international force of military officers which checks on border incidents after they have occurred, be enlarged to permit a preventive patrol of the Israeli-Arab borders.

Atoms-for Peace Meet Scheduled

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—An 84-nation atoms-for-peace conference will be held at the U. N.

next September with President Eisenhower opening the session, diplomats report.

In 1922, 4 per cent of U. S. population were tuberculous, but only 1 per cent in 1955.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to those who were comforting in time of our sorrow and bereavement.

LONDON — (UP) — An Australian captain was searching today for some admitted scarce women "amenable to discipline."

He finds them. Capt. Alan Waters will take them along on a transatlantic voyage in a replica of the "Mayflower" commemorating the Pilgrims' trip to Plymouth in 1620.

The 35-year-old skipper who went to sea under sail when he was 17 said life on the two masted sailing ship will be grim and "a place for glum pussies."

There were 40 women aboard the original Mayflower when the ship made its historic voyage 250 years ago, he said but they were "controlled and disciplined."

"If we have women we shall have such as are amenable to control and discipline," Villiers said. The voyage expected to take 50 to 60 days would put the modern-

CHAPTER XXI

Mike took one of his pistols and shoved it into Barba-Leonidas' hamlike hand as a gift. It was the same pistol that had been earmarked for his death by Mosley outside of Kalamai. Once again Mike tried to offer money, but the giant proudly refused.

Mike lifted the sack to his back and nodded to Lisa. They walked from the cottage and climbed aboard a donkey cart. In a moment it nudged down a path away from Kalamai.

Mike turned around and looked back to the hills. He saw the coast around Christmas.

Assail for of Barba-Leonidas outlined against the sky, and Eleftheria stood at his side. He smiled sadly. "Forgive me the hearts and flowers, but they are my friends."

"I understand," Lisa answered in perfect English.

At nightfall the donkey cart pulled into the town of Dadi. For Mike, it was as though he was coming into another age. He was intrigued by the red-tile roofs, by the sight of an automobile and a sidewalk.

The donkey driver was dismissed and they set off for the main square. Lisa led Mike to a bakery run by a hefty character identified as Baladis.

A room in the rear of the bakery turned out to be an arsenal. It had a cache of everything from pistols to homemade bombs and machine guns. A second man, Rigas, a photographer, looked himself in with them and went to work.

First, Mike was given a suit of second-hand city clothes. Rigas photographed him and then pre-

Good to Watch Oldtimers Work Again

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Whether they're on a baseball diamond or a tennis court or a movie stage it's wonderful to watch the oldpros at work.

Two of the best pros are working together out at MGM these days. Barbara Stanwyck and James Cagney are playing in "All Our Yesterdays." Together they know about film acting.

They went through the rehearsal of a long scene with utter precision. Yet despite their familiarity with the scene they brought their characters alive. There was nothing mechanical about their work. As I watched them I couldn't help comparing their craftsmanship with the new T-shirt and lantern school of acting.

Afterwards I collared Cagney and asked him what he thought about these young actors who lie in scratching their bellies or doing anything that comes naturally.

"Well it seems to me it's all a difference between the subjective and objective schools of acting," he replied. "These kids believe acting is all subjective. They bury themselves in the character and get so wrapped up that they don't let the audience in on it."

Little sister dresses for the Easter parade in fashions that are miniatures of mother's. Pink cotton sateen jumper with purple look (left) is by Nanelle. It has separate pettibouise in white nylon flocked with pink. Fitted coat by Barnbury in aqua hop-skip (right) has a gored skirt held full by a pella lining. Narrow pleating at collar's edge is repeated on the bonnet.

DOROTHY DIX

Tell New Beau of Past Before He Hears About it Elsewhere

Dear Miss Dix: Should I tell the man I'm in love with of previous sex experiences I have had? I have had relations with a married man.

I think that's a mistake. "I still think acting is a matter of projection. You work out a character then you project it to the audience. That's all there is to it."

Sounds simple doesn't it? But it becomes an art when practiced by a talent like Cagney. He may well be rewarded for it with another Oscar tonight. He was nominated for his deftly shaded role as the Gimp in "Love Me or Leave Me."

a boy I once loved, and a boy I cared nothing about. The first was under the influence of liquor, the second because I was in love, and the third I can't explain.

The young man I love now is 25, two years older than I and I'm afraid he'll hear of my reputation, which isn't too good. I am trying to live it down but people just don't forget. I know I'd be a good wife if I ever married this man.

ADELE
Answer: In the case of one mistake, I advise discreet silence, but since your reputation is quite well known, trying to hide your affairs would be rather useless. Sooner or later your beau is bound to find out and if deceit is added to indiscretion in love, faith in you is bound to suffer a complete blackout.

Confession is best, coupled with a sincere determination to make your future cloudless. A man who truly loves you will try to understand.

Don't Count On Him

Dear Miss Dix: I am a widow of 62 in love with a man the same age, who is very unhappily married. He says he would leave his wife except for the fact that he owns considerable property and she would insist on having it if she divorced him. She is his second wife, doesn't get along with his children, won't do anything for him. I think she's only interested in his money.

ELVA
Answer: When a man, no matter what his age, shows interest in a woman and makes excuses for not getting a divorce and marrying her, his intentions are certainly open to suspicion.

Not many men are willing to dissolve a marriage, no matter how unattractive they make it sound. It's a bad deal for the other women, whether she's 22 or 62. Naturally he's going to paint his domestic picture in unattractive colors, but you can safely discount half of it. I'm sorry for you, but chances of acquiring this man as a lifetime companion are extremely slim.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a high school junior. Eric and I have known each other for six months and are very much in love. My parents seemed to like him, but suddenly mother has forbidden me to see him. I intended to finish school before we were married, but now I wonder if it wouldn't be best to run off. Being with the one you love seems more important than an education.

LOIS G.
Answer: If you and Eric marry when you graduate from high school, you'll have 50 years or more of wedded bliss ahead of you. Does a year, then, seem too long to wait? Especially when it means a more solid foundation

4,300 Disabled Vets Receive $41 Million

WASHINGTON — The Veterans Administration said today more than 4,300 seriously disabled veterans have received federal grants of over 41 million dollars for "wheel chair homes." VA pays half the cost of such homes up to a maximum of $10,000. The average grant has been $3,482.

"Wheel chair homes" incorporate such special features as ramps instead of steps; doorways wide enough to accommodate a wheel chair; special bathroom features; and exercise rooms.

At the end of 1935, the U. S. population was 166,740,000.

I'm sure your mother's ban on Eric was caused by her conviction that you were getting too serious, too young and upon too short an acquaintance. When she has your assurance that you will finish school, that you will cooperate as to dating and curfews, she will most likely relent.

Dear Miss Dix: The girl I love is 10 years younger than I, has a very good job, and money in the bank. I've never saved anything, as I never expected to marry, and now at 34 I don't have the money to set up an apartment. What can I do? I am sure the girl loves me and her parents seem to approve of me.

BERT
Answer: Cupid has laughed at bank accounts (or the absence of them) before. If your intentions are sincere, your affection genuine, a mutually satisfactory plan can be worked out. Tell the young lady, frankly, the status of your finances, and start saving like mad. With her co-operation, that apartment will soon materialize.

Dodge leads all pick-ups on all 4 counts!

1 HIGHEST V-8 HORSEPOWER-TO-WEIGHT RATIO... Greater Hauling Power.

2 BIGGEST CAB Extra Room For Extra Comfort

3 HIGHEST PAYLOAD CAPACITY For Bigger, More Profitable Hauls

4 DODGE COSTS LESS Than Any Other Truck With Automatic Transmission

Don't buy a truck blindfolded...

Check Dodge before you buy, and get more truck per dollar!

Choose any yardstick of comparison you can name—you'll find no other truck measures up to today's bigger, more powerful DODGE.

Prove it yourself. Give the new truck you may be thinking of buying a good, thorough going over. Dig into its payload rating, horsepower-to-weight ratio, cab size, performance, and price. Get the facts, right from the engineers' specification book. Then take time to...

Check Dodge. Match every one of these points against what you get in a DODGE truck, and see how much more Dodge gives you for each dollar you invest.

You owe it to yourself to get the best buy for your money, so be sure to get your Dodge dealer's deal before you decide—before you make the unfortunate mistake of paying more for your next truck and getting less.

Easier on driver—especially with automatic transmission. You get the largest cab for greater comfort, largest wrap-around windshield for greater safety.

Easier to turn. Dodge has industry's shortest turning radius—requires much less effort to park, make U-turns, maneuver through heavy downtown traffic.

Easier to load. Low body-floor means just an easy lift from ground to truck, saves you work every time you load, every time you unload.

Easier on gas. Dodge higher horsepower-to-weight ratio means less pulling effort required of engine, assures greater efficiency, maximum gas economy.

By ED CORRIGAN NEW YORK (AP)—It's a first new ball game as they say. Brand Wes Santee had his innings then the Amateur Athletic Union came on fast and today the contest between the two is deadlocked.

Right now Santee America's premier miler is out of the Chicago Daily News Relays this Saturday. Justice Walter A. Lynch of the New York State Supreme Court saw to that yesterday when he refused to continue a temporary injunction which barred the AAU from enforcing its lifetime ban on Santee.

The jurist however can—and probably will—make a ruling in the case before Saturday. If he decides in Santee's favor and grants a permanent injunction then the speedy Marine Corps lieutenant is free to run anywhere any time.

If he rules in favor of the AAU, Santee's case is still in a deadlock.

Justice Lynch heard arguments by Charles P. Grimes, Santee's attorney, and Louis Nizer representing the AAU yesterday. When he called a halt to the proceedings he said he would hear further pleas today. It's a possibility that he'll make his decision by day.

Santee had won three other court battles. After he was suspended he obtained the injunction and ran in a couple of races. The AAU was turned down by the Appeals Division when it sought to have the injunction set aside.

Last week another New York judge granted Santee a stay of the injunction.

Top Pros to Play in Miami Open

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The field of assembling today for the start of the 72-hole, $15,000 Miami Beach Open Golf Tournament.

Among those expected to be on hand are some of the nation's top professionals who played in the Seminole Professional-Amateur tournament that ended yesterday at Palm Beach.

Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., won the 36-hole event with a score of 68-70-138. That was two strokes better than that of the second place man, Ted Kroil of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Ed Furgol of St. Louis, Mo., and Jack Fleck of Davenport, Ia., tied for third place with 141s.

Burkemo's share of the purse for professionals was $1,800. But Kroil, who was also the professional half of a pro-am team that won that division of play, took $1,000 for each performance.

HARD WORK—Readying a bull for the kill is hard work, as the strain on Pat McCormick's face reveals. The famous American lady bullfighter not only killed this bull but also another in the arena recently at Matamoros, Mexico.

Two Porker Games to Be Televised

DALLAS (AP)—Two of the Arkansas Razorback's football games will be televised next fall.

The Arkansas-Texas A&M game will be telecast under the NCAA's district football television program on Nov. 3, it was announced here yesterday. Earlier, the National Broadcasting Co., said it would carry the Porker-TCU contest as its "Game of the Day" in October.

The Spring Revival begins at Garrett Chapel Baptist Church, tonight, with Rev. C. B. Black of Texarkana, doing the preaching.

the ban-imposed by the Executive Committee Feb. 19 Santee was found guilty of accepting excessive expenses for some meals last year—goes back into effect for good.

Then Santee's only redress would be an appeal to the AAU Board of Governors the supreme power in the organization.

Justice Lynch heard arguments by Charles P. Grimes, Santee's attorney, and Louis Nizer representing the AAU yesterday. When he called a halt to the proceedings he said he would hear further pleas today. It's a possibility that he'll make his decision by day.

Santee had won three other court battles. After he was suspended he obtained the injunction and ran in a couple of races. The AAU was turned down by the Appeals Division when it sought to have the injunction set aside.

Last week another New York judge granted Santee a stay of the injunction.
